Higher Education Compact of Greater Cleveland to Release 2015 College Success Dashboard

CLEVELAND – Please join us as Mayor Frank G. Jackson and Higher Education Compact partners present the fourth annual College Success Dashboard Event, which measures a number of indicators related to college readiness, access and persistence.

The Higher Education Compact Partners have identified the Cleveland Metropolitan School District (CMSD) graduates within their institutions. Additionally, they are tracking their progress toward a college degree and are implementing proactive intervention plans to remove barriers to student success. This year's event will feature Mayor Jackson, CMSD CEO Eric Gordon and Compact Partners highlighting the Compact's fourth-year successes as well as explaining the data that informs the College Success Dashboard.
