Traffic Advisory

East 101st Street from Euclid Avenue to Chester Avenue

CLEVELAND – Beginning Monday, January 4, 2016, East 101st Street between Euclid Avenue and Chester Avenue will be closed to traffic. Traffic will be detoured using the following detour route:

- East 101st Street northbound traffic will be detoured westbound to Euclid Avenue, then northbound to East 93rd Street, and finally eastbound to Chester Avenue.
- East 101st Street southbound traffic will be detoured eastbound to Chester Avenue, then southbound to East 105th Street, and finally westbound to Euclid Avenue.

This closure will allow for the installation of electrical duct banks as part of the Cleveland Clinic's campus-wide Ring Bus project. This segment of the electrical installation is scheduled to be completed by January 23, 2016.
